CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE DONE BY HEAVY STORM

Petersburg and Vicinity Swept by Downpour of Rain and Hall, With Severe Electrical Discharge.

TWO MEN INJURED IN ACCIDENT

W. E. Buford, of Richmond, One of Passengers in Automobile Which Leaves Road and Turns Turtle.

> The Times-Dispatch Bureau, 5 Bollingbrook Street. (Phone 1485)

Petersburg, Va., May 31. Petersburg and vicinity were swept hast evening by a storm of great severity, continuing for over an hour, during which time there were constant electrical discharges. Limitning struck in several places in the city, and trees were uproofed or disagured by the wind. The rainfall was very heavy, and there was some fall of hall, the stores being of considerable size. The storm was very severe in its path through portions of Dinwiddle and Prince George Counties, doing much damage to trees and outbuildings on some of the farms. The rain was greatly needed throughout this section, where the drought was becoming so serious as to affect vegetation and delay all farming operations. Petersburg and vicinity were swept

3. T. Lewis, of Mecklenburg, and W. E. Buford, or Richmond, were hurt in an automobile accident yesterday evening on the road between DeWitt and McKenney. In Dinwiddle. The automobile is owned and was being driven by Mr. Buford, and occupying seats in the car were Stewart Christian. E. E. Harris and T. M. Carrington, all going for Sunday at the home of Mr. Lewis, in Mecklenburg. The car, it seems, got beyond control, left the road, and turned over. Mr. Lewis was caught beneath, and when rescued was found to have sustained a fracture of a leg and dislocation of a shoulder Mr. Buford sustained a sprained ankie. Mr. Lewis was taken to the home of his brother, Charles Lewis, at DeWitt. The car was somewhat damaged, but after being righted was driven back to this city, and at a late hour the Richmond citizens left for their homes. Mr. Lewis and Mr. Buford were the only two of the party hurt. Neighbers in the vicinity of the accident came to the assistance of the party.

Great Attendance at the Churches, To-day was observed in The city was observed in the city was crowded at both the white and the colored people. John M. Grifflin, After Serving for Six teen Years, Succeeded by James R. Rawlings.

I Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., May 31.—John M. Griffin, who has been postmaster of Fredericksburg for the past sixteen years, completed his service to-day, and the newly appointed postmaster, James R. Rawlings, takes charge of the post-office to-morrow morning. The post-office here is one of the best equipped for a city of this size in Virginia, and probably in the country. The government building, in which it is located, is a fine one, and there are fifteen employes.

To-night in Russell Hall, at the Fredericksburg State Normal School, the boccalaureate sermon was delivered to the faculty and student body, and a large number of citizens of Fredericksburg, by Bishop Collins Denny, of the Methodist Church. The Methodist and Baptist Churches dispensed with night services in order that the members of these congregations might be able to hear the bishop.

This morning at the Presbyterian Church the baccalaureate sermon of Fredericksburg College was preached by Rev. R. C. Gilmore, pastor of the Presbyterian Church. The church was filled with an interested audience, and, in addition to the faculty and student body and the Presbyterian congregation proper, there were many other

BOY LOSES HIS LIFE WHEN HE VENTURES REYOND DEPTH

IS VENTURES REYOND DEPTH

[Special to The Timer-Dispatch.]
Danville, Va., May 31.—The first bathing fatality of the present season occurred here this afternoon, when Charlie Harrell, the sixteen-year-old son of James W. Harrell, was drowned at a point in the river opposite the old fair grounds. Harrell, with six friends, was enjoying an afternoon dip when he suddenly got beyond his depth and hegan to cry for assistance. Murray Hart, a fourteen-year-old lad, bravely swam out to him, but Harrell clutched him so tightly that he was forced to fight him off in order to save his own life. Two policemen dragged the river and dived for over two hours before the body was recovered.

Harrell's body was placed in a hack and driven to his parents' home on Patton Street. The Harrell family came here from Reidsville six months ago.

A Good Food That the Children Want

YOU need never worry about the children eating enough if you give them WASHINGTON CRISPS. There's something about these crisp, toasted flakes that seems to appeal specially to their little palates.

Grown-ups too enjoy their savory zest, and you may be sure your family is getting good nourishment whenever you serve WASHINGTON CRISPS. Nature never improved on corn, and in WASHINGTON CRISPS you get the full food value of this grand grain in a light, easily digested form, which is far better for the stomach than too much meat and heavy foods.

WASHINGTON CRISPS are made wholly by automatic machinerynot touched by human hands. They are cleanliness itself.

Order WASHINGTON CRISPS from your grocer today. You'll find it a treat and a good sensible food, too.
